Certification of Compliance with Fee Guidelines Pg 3 of 5
[ECF No. 529] (the “Interim Compensation Order”), (ii) Rule 2016-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, incorporating the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases [General Order M-447], among other guidelines (the “Local Guidelines”), and (iii) The United States Trustee’s Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11
U.S.C. § 330 for Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases effective as of November 1, 2013 (the “U.S.
Trustee Guidelines,” and together with Local Guidelines, the “Fee Guidelines”).² The Application covers the period from June 1, 2021 through September 30, 2021 (the “Fee Period”).

3. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the statements contained in the foregoing Application are true and accurate in all material respects and comply with the Fee Guidelines in material part. Cornerstone Research responds to the questions identified in the U.S.
Trustee Guidelines as follows:

² Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Interim Compensation Order.

Question 1: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees, or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period? If so, please explain.

Answer: Cornerstone Research has not agreed to negotiated discounts off of its standard rates.

Question 2: If the fees sought in the Application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by the Application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Answer: Cornerstone Research has provided the client with the actual amount of fees incurred on a monthly basis and engages in ongoing discussions with the client regarding fees and expenses generally, but did not prepare an itemized budget for the Fee Period.

Question 3: Have any of the professionals included in the Application varied their hourly rate based on geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Answer: As disclosed in the Retention Application, no.

Question 4: Does the Application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices?

Answer: The Application includes time and fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices in connection with the preparation of one monthly fee statement and an interim application relating to the period February 2021-May 2021, as well as three monthly fee statements relating to the Fee Period covered by the Application. Cornerstone Research is seeking compensation for 34.60 hours and $23,195.00 in fees related to reviewing and revising time records with respect to the preparation of such fee applications.

Question 5: Does the Application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information? If so, please quantify hours and fees.

Answer: The Application includes time and fees related to reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information. Such charges are included in the time charges set forth in the response to question 4 and are not separately calculated.

Question 6: Did the Application include any rate increases since retention in these cases:

Answer: The Application does not include any rate increases.

Question 7: Did the client agree when retaining Cornerstone Research to accept all future rate increases? If not, did Cornerstone Research inform the client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

Answer: The client was informed regarding Cornerstone Research's rates and future rate increases as part of its approval of Cornerstone Research's retention application.
